Fr. Alexander Atty was the pastor for more than 30 years of St. Michael Antiochian Orthodox Church in Louisville, Kentucky, where he led a major revitalization of parish life after decades of previous decline and instability. He was appointed in July of 2010 as the dean of St. Tikhon’s Seminary, succeeding Bishop Michael (Dahulich), where he continues his work at revitalization and moving the seminary forward to spread Holy Orthodoxy in the 21st century.
